

Our Commitment To Privacy

Your privacy is important to DBSA Greater Houston. To better protect your privacy we provide this notice explaining our online information practices and the choices you can make about the way your information is collected and used. To make this notice easy to find, we make it available on our homepage and at every point where personally identifiable information may be requested.

The Information We Collect:

This notice applies to all information collected or submitted on the DBSA Greater Houston's website. On some pages, you can make online donations to DBSA Greater and register to receive newsletters. The types of personal information collected at these pages are:

- Name
- Address
- Email address
- Phone number
- Credit/Debit Card Information

On some pages, you can submit information about other people. For example, if you make a donation in honor or in memory of another individual and want notification of your gift sent directly to the individual, you will need to submit the individual's address. In this circumstance, the types of personal information collected are:

- Name
- Address

The Way We Use Information:

We do not share your information with outside parties.

We use the information you provide about someone else in order to notify them of your gift on their behalf. We do not share this information with outside parties.

We use return email addresses to answer the email we receive. When making an online donation, you are given the opportunity to opt out of receiving further emails from us. If you do choose this option your email will not be used for any other purpose than accepting and recording your donation.

Such addresses are not used for any other purpose and are not shared with outside parties.

You can register with our website if you would like to receive our bi-annual newsletter as well as our monthly online newsletter. Such information is not used for any other purpose and is not shared with outside parties.

Finally, we never use or share the personally identifiable information provided to us online in ways unrelated to the ones described above without also providing you an opportunity to opt-out or otherwise prohibit such unrelated uses.

Our Commitment To Data Security

To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, we have put in place appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.

Our Commitment To Children's Privacy:

Protecting the privacy of the very young is especially important. For that reason, we never collect or maintain information at our website from those we actually know are under 13, and no part of our website is structured to attract anyone under 13.

How You Can Access Or Correct Your Information

You can access all your personally identifiable information that we collect online and maintain by contacting our office at 713.600.1131. We use this procedure to better safeguard your information.

You can correct factual errors in your personally identifiable information by sending us a request that credibly shows error.

To protect your privacy and security, we will also take reasonable steps to verify your identity before granting access or making corrections.

How To Contact Us

Should you have other questions or concerns about these privacy policies, please call us at 713.600.1131 or send us an email at dbsahouston@dbsahouston.org
